

CALL FOR SPECIAL ISSUES:
SUBMIT YOUR PROPOSAL

Revista de Administracao de Empresas® management research that matters

RAE-Revista de Administração de Empresas invites proposals for special issues. We are open to any relevant focus area that will benefit from research capable of advancing knowledge in administration and management, developing solutions to the great challenges faced by organizations and contemporary society, and making a significant impact in the respective domains.

As a leading platform in the field of administration and management, RAE offers a range of benefits to authors:

🌍 High Visibility and Global Exposure: Your research will reach a diverse international audience, spanning various disciplines and sectors.
🔀 Multidisciplinary Audience: RAE attracts readers from diverse backgrounds, fostering cross-pollination of ideas and perspectives.
⏱️ Fast Publication: We prioritize efficient publication processes, ensuring that your research is disseminated in a timely manner.
🔬 Diligent and Rigorous Peer Review: Your work will undergo thorough evaluation by experts in the field, maintaining the highest standards of academic integrity.

Proposals should:

- Describe in detail the scope of the focus area of the special issue.
- Indicate how the focus area will benefit from empirical research and highlight relevance to research and practice.
- Provide evidence that this topic is likely to attract a considerable amount of submissions (e.g. based on recent trends, volume in published work, and appearance in conferences and proceedings).
- Provide a short bio of each member of the guest editor team (2-5 individuals).
- List a set of ad-hoc reviewers that could help out in the SI.
- Include a suggested timeline.

Please submit your proposal by e-mail, along with a CV for each guest editor, to raeredacao@fgv.br. Proposals will be competitively evaluated by the Editor-in-Chief. Feel free to contact EIC with any questions.

About the Journal

RAE was launched in 1961 and is one of the most prestigious journals published in Latin America. The journal is currently ranked as level 1 in AJG ABS and indexed by several indexers and databases such as Elsevier's Scopus, SciELO, IBSS, HAPI, Spell, and JCR/Clarivate (WoS). Accepted articles are published in English and in either Portuguese or Spanish to reach a wide global audience. RAE is an open-access journal and does not charge publication fees.

We look forward to receiving your valuable contributions!
